

Online Research on Health Conditions - $150/1 hr

ICG, a healthcare research firm, is conducting paid, online interviews January 18th through January 27th to learn more about the experiences of people managing various health conditions.

Interviews will take place virtually, webcam optional but preferred, and will compensate $150 for one hour. Times are available in the morning, afternoon, and evening.

If you are interested, please click the link below and answer a short qualifying survey.

LINK

We will be following up with qualified participants via phone shortly to schedule interviews.

This interview is for research purposes only. All responses will be kept entirely anonymous and confidential. Thank you again for your interest.

Insight Consulting Group
www.insightconsulting-group.com